Ohio Girls' Club Honors
Mrs. Willis at Y. W. C. A.

The reception by the Ohio Girls' Club in honor of Mrs. Frank B. Willis, wife of Senator Willis, and sponsor for the club, was attended by 150 Ohio girls and their guests last evening. It was given in the parlors of the E street branch of the Y. W. C. A., and a program which consisted of a reading by Miss Waterman, a vocal solo by Mrs. Montgomery, accompanied by Miss Morris, and an address by Miss Little of Lounaine, Ohio, afforded the guests pleasure.

Little Jean Carle presented Mrs. Willis with a bouquet of her favorite flowers, Haidigh roses, the gift of the Ohio girls, which Mrs. Willis, assisted by the officers of the club, Mrs. Ealy, Miss Montgomery, Miss Shields and Mrs. Luginbuhl, received.

The rest of the evening was devoted to getting acquainted, which was successfully accomplished by a clever arrangement of numbers and directions.

Kappa Tau Phi to Give
Valentine Party Dance

The Kappa Tau Phi has completed plans for its formal valentine party and dance, at the residence of Mr. Patrick W. Beavers, Saturday, February 11. Elaborate favors are to be given the guests, as this is ladies' night, and the first big affair the fraternity has given. The home will be decorated with the colors of the club and a buffet supper will be served during intermission of dances. Several specialties will be introduced during the evening.

The committee in charge of the occasion includes Mr. Patrick W. Beavers, chairman; Mr. Robert V. Rogers, Mr. Philip J. Austensen, Mr. John J. Campbell and Mr. James P. Quigley. The next dance will be held February 23 at the Woman's Club, 1700 K street northwest, which will be an informal affair.

An informal dance was given by the Kappa Tau Phi to its members at the residence of Mr. James P. Quigley, 617 Vermont street northwest, on Wednesday evening and about twelve couples were present. Refreshments were served during the intermission, and music was furnished by a jazz orchestra. The committee in charge included Mr. James P. Quigley, chairman; Mr. John J. Campbell, Mr. Patrick W. Beavers and Mr. Walter G. Mahoin.
